Philippines Won't Participate in Portland Fair.

Massachusetts Fixing up the Incident at Lee.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The President received in the East Room of the White House today about seventy-five members of the International Congress of Arts and Sciences, headed by the president of the congress, Prof. Simon Newcomb, and Prof. Hugo Münsterberg. The President said:

"Perhaps the happiest feature of our modern-world life is the steady increasing recognition of the fact that it must be a world life; that no nation can hope for the fullest development if it confines itself exclusively within its boundaries; that progress must come from a frank recognition of the fact that each nation can help others and can be helped by them."

I feel that, not only do associations and gatherings such as this mean much for the scientific, artistic, intellectual development of all the nations taking part in them, but I feel also that these gatherings will help to prepare the way for the time when the great rules of right and of equity shall prevail among the nations exactly as they now in highly-civilized countries prevail among individuals."

PHILIPPINES WON'T EXHIBIT.

CAN'T STAND COST AT PORTLAND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Col. Edwards, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, War Department, replying to an inquiry from W. H. Hilla, chairman of the government board of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, as to the participation by the Philippine government at the Portland fair, says that in view of the great expense caused by its participation in the St. Louis fair, the money and effort it has cost, the Philippine government feels constrained, with regret, to decline to participate in the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

The colonel says that, much as it would like to make an exhibit on the Pacific Coast, because of its proximity to the islands, yet the Philippine government does not feel warranted in spending a dollar for that purpose in the United States at this time. Col. Edwards suggests, however, that an adequate Philippine exhibition might be made upon the specific condition that no expense attach to the island government, and has submitted a proposition which, however, must first be submitted to Civil Gov. Wright for his approval; and this that the Philippine government set aside $10,000 and the Lewis and Clark Exposition place $50,000 at the disposal of the War Department's representative, who shall have charge of the exhibition, the exhibit to be selected by a committee composed of two members of the Philippine exhibition board and a representative of the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

CHICAGO RIVER TUNNELS.

DATE FOR THEIR LOWERING.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Secretary Taft, under the authority of the act of Congress of April 27, last, today served notice on the city of Chicago and the street railway companies owning or controlling the tunnels under the Chicago River to alter all the tunnels so that there shall be a depth of water at least twenty-two feet over them. April 15, 1904, is fixed as the date when the lowering shall be completed.

Rumor About Hearst.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reports were received in this city today to the effect that for some reason unknown William Randolph Hearst will not return to Congress when his present term expires. Reports have it that he does not want the nomination, and Murphy of Tammany Hall has decided to give the place to former Senator Towne.

MONTEVIDEO REJOICES.

Fireworks, Bands, Toasts and Te Deums

Denote End of Revolution in Uruguay.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—There is great rejoicing in Montevideo over the ending of the revolution, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres. Fireworks were burned Sunday night, and bands paraded the streets playing patriotic airs. Five thousand citizens made a demonstration in front of the Presidential residence. The President toasted the union of all Uruguayans, Archbishop Soler has ordered Te Deum in the cathedral. All political prisoners will be set at liberty.

In the meantime the revolution in Paraguay is progressing.

ARE STILL HOSTILE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 27.—Notwithstanding the general feeling of satisfaction in Uruguay over the conclusion of a treaty of peace between the government and the revolutionists, eight revolutionary leaders, including two members of the family of the late Gen. Aparicio Saravia, have announced that they decline to recognize the action of Gen. Pando, who claimed to act for the revolutionists, and that they will continue hostilities under the command of Gen. Pando. Public opinion inclines to the belief that the dissenting revolu-

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 27.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Emperor will leave for Odessa tomorrow. It is his intention to visit Tiraspol instead of Kishineff, as has been previously announced.

WINTER OUTFITS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 27.—The commissariat department is already prepared to furnish winter outfits for half a million men. About 47,000 sets of fur caps, cloaks and boots are proceeding to the Far East.

SISTERS OF MERCY WELL.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

CRONSTADT, Sept. 27.—The local Red Cross Society has received a telegram from Port Arthur, by way of Chofu, announcing that all the Sisters of Mercy there are well.

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 27.—Russia today celebrated the Holy Festival of the Ascension of the Cross, one of the most important religious holidays of the Russian people. The day was observed in all the churches and the government departments, theaters and other places of amusement being closed.

BEAN-CAKE AMMUNITION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

CHEFOO, Sept. 27.—Chinese say that the battle which began Sept. 19 continued intermittently until September 24. In defending one of the forts, the Russians rolled bean cakes down on the masses Japanese. These bean cakes are very heavy and are pressed into the shape of circular girdles.

PASSES THROUGH BOSPHORUS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27.—The Russian volunteer fleet steamer Nijal Novgorod passed through the Bosphorus yesterday, bound for Candia, island of Crete, and thence to Port Said, where she will await orders. The Nijal Novgorod flew the Russian commercial flag and carried no arms or ammunition.

DUKE NICK THE MAN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 27.—Although an official announcement to the effect is not expected immediately, since it will require some little time to get Russia's second army in the field, the designation of Grand Duke Nicholas as commander-in-chief of the army is rumored to be imminent.

At the Paraguayan legation here today it was stated that nothing was known of reported engagements with the revolutionists in Paraguay or of the defeat of the government forces there.

TO INCREASE EFFICIENCY

Salvation Army Will be Divided into

Two Sections, With Headquarters at New York and Chicago.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The Salvation Army, it is stated, will be divided into two sections, with western headquarters in Chicago and eastern offices in New York. The object, it is said, is to increase the efficiency of the two territories by extending opportunities for greater concentration in each. The main headquarters, it is understood, are to continue in New York.

The eastern, or New York district, will be much the larger and probably will be in charge of Commissioner Eva Booth, who is leaving Canada. The western, or Chicago district, which in a measure will be subsidiary to the eastern, will be placed under the direction of Commissioner Combs, now in England, but a former commissioner of Canada.

Terms of Sale of Interests of the American Tobacco Company Concluded at Tokio.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

TOKIO, Sept. 27.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The terms of sale of the interests of the American Tobacco Company to the Japanese government, under the recently-established monopoly, have been concluded.

The company objected to the price the government first offered, and appealed to the American legation. As a result of the extended representations made by Mr. Griscom, the American Minister, the consideration for the transfer of the company's interests has been increased about one million yen, equivalent to about $400,000 in American money. The total consideration has not been made public.

WOULD RUIN BATTLESHIP.

Some Person Charged by New York

Herald With Putting Obstruction

on the Ways.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The Herald tomorrow will say:

"With the intention of ruining the hull of the battleship Connecticut, which will be launched at the New York navy yard Thursday, some person or persons placed an obstruction on the ways. When it was placed there, or by whom, it is not known, as it was not discovered until divers were sent down to make an investigation. This investigation was made at the expense of precaution, and the naval officers then learned that an obstruction had been placed on the ways that would have destroyed the work of months."

ITALIAN YOUTH GOES FREE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Judge Aspinall, in the Kings County Court, has suspended sentence in the case of Antonio Cucuzza, the Italian youth who recently pleaded guilty to the charge of kidnapping growing out of the abduction of Tony Mannino, the little son of a Brooklyn contractor. The judge declared that he believed the youth was made an instrument in the hands of older persons and promised him the protection of the court instead of sending him to prison.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—A dispatch from Straßburg announces that the president of the American Institute there, has shot and killed himself. No explanation is yet obtainable of the cause of his suicide. The American Institute at Straßburg is closed.

EDUCATION AND EDUCATORS.

(SPECIALLY COMPILED FOR THE TIMES.)

Prof. Howard J. Banker of the Southwestern Normal School of Pennsylvania has been elected professor of Psychology in the University of Pennsylvania, and will take charge of the Methodist school at Greencastle, Ind.

The directors of the St. Louis Exposition have selected the following jurors in the section of history: Dr. Guy Carleton Lee, Baltimore; Reuben Gold Thwaites of the University of Wisconsin; Alice Fortier of Tulane University, New Orleans; Gov. L. Bradford Prince, Santa Fe, N. M.; and Grace King, New Orleans.

Prof. Charles H. Allen, president of the State Normal School at San José, died Sunday, September 11, following a long illness. Prof. Allen had directed the affairs of the Normal School for eighteen years. He was born in Mansfield, Ohio, July 1, 1828. Before coming to this State he was engaged in educational lines in Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Oregon. He left a widow and several children.

Dr. William H. Maxwell, the new president of the National Educational Association, is fifty-two years of age. He was born in Ireland, graduated from Queen's University, came to the United States at the age of twenty-two, became assistant superintendent of the Brooklyn Public Schools, and then traveled in Europe and Asia. He is the only school superintendent of Greater New York, having been selected six years ago.

Prof. George E. Vincent, mentioned for the presidency of Northwestern University, is professor of sociology at the University of Chicago, to which institution he went in 1892. He was born at Rockford, Ill., in 1854, and was graduated A.B. from Yale in 1885. Then he traveled in Europe and the Orient, was literary editor of the Chautauqua Press in 1887, the next year became vice-president of the Chautauqua system, and since 1899 has been principal of the Chautauqua system. Prof. Vincent is the author of "Social Mind and Education," and in 1900 received the degree Ph.D. from the University of Chicago.

Preparations are being made at Columbia University, New York City, to celebrate the 160th anniversary of the founding of Kings College, as the institution was formerly called. The faculty and students expect to entertain 20,000 persons October 28 to 31, when the regular term begins. All the participants in the celebration will be the university students, of whom there are 14,000 living. October 29 a football game between Yale and Columbia has been arranged. October 31 the coronation of four new buildings will be held—the university chapel, the school and mines building, Hartley Hall, and a second dormitory building. The convocation takes place on the same afternoon.

At the St. Louis Exposition are educational exhibits from thirty-three States, four cities and fifteen foreign countries, besides the leading universities of the United States. The four cities were chosen by the authorities of the exposition as representative of the schools throughout the country. They are New York, Chicago, St. Louis and Cleveland. In discussing these exhibits, the Outlook says that they make it plain that "the child of today writes better, spells better and cipher better than did his father and grandfather. In addition, he enjoys a fullness of opportunity for the training of his senses and powers of expression that the older generation lacked entirely obtained by chance through casual occupation in childhood or youth."

Dr. Andrew S. Draper, who resigned his office of president of the University of Illinois on April 1 to become Commissioner of Education for the State of New York, is meeting with success in his new position. His duties as Commissioner of Education are of the most important and of the most competent men to be found anywhere in the country. They are Howard J. Rogers, formerly Deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction in New York, now director of education at the St. Louis Exposition; Dr. Edward J. Goodwin, principal of the Morris High School; and Augustus R. Downing, principal of the New York City Training School for Teachers. Dr. Draper was, from 1886 to 1892, State Superintendent of Public Instruction in New York.

The members of the Moseley Educational Commission from England have published the report of their visit to the United States last fall and winter. The Outlook, in commenting on the matter, says that their report stands at the head of all the educational publications of the year. The visitors were impressed, first, with the absolute belief in the value of education shown by the people of the United States, and also by the spirit which animates both teachers and pupils in American schools. They noted the absence of class prejudice and of anything like a "religious difficulty," which is so vexatious in England. They saw the important part which manual training is playing in the public schools, and they commended it. They were greatly impressed by the liberality displayed toward education, and they were led to express regret that the remuneration of teachers remains so inadequate. All but two of the twenty-six visitors were "led to view somewhat with alarm the growing preponderance of women teachers."

Dr. Stanley Hall, who has been president for many years of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., has made a careful study of the problems connected with the question of educating boys and girls in the same schools. He thinks that beginning with the High School they should be in separate buildings. In a paper on the subject, read at the National Education Association, he gives his reasons for this opinion. In the first place, he says, young men should be made more manly and young women more womanly. But exactly the opposite result is produced by schools where boys and girls are educated together. He says that the girls' manners are roughened, while the boys become effeminate. In the classroom the boys will always excel under text-book and recitation methods, but in laboratory methods and in research boys leave girls far behind. Dr. Hall closes his paper with the following:

"The higher education of woman involves all the difficulties of that of man, but with many new ones of its own. The girls' colleges train for self-support, and hold that if marriage come it can best take care of itself. I urge the precise opposite. The bachelor woman, who has developed individuality at the expense of herself, is a magnificent creature, but not made for wifehood or motherhood. The thirty years' war of sex against sex is now slowly passing, and the best men and women are now addressing themselves anew to the greatest educational question of our generation—how to prolong with profit the pre-natal stage of apprenticeship to life, so as to bring the greatest good to the greatest number with the least evil."

FIGHT OVER SCHOOL LAW.

MT. Ayr (Iowa), Sept. 27.—Samuel Ely is dead, and William Kling, his self-confessed slayer, is in jail today as the result of a quarrel over the school laws. Both are directors and had met on school business, when the slaying occurred. Ely threatened to strike Kling with an ax, and the latter shot him through the heart. Self-defense is the plea.

DUKE ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

DRESDEN (Saxony), Sept. 27.—While hunting partridge today, Duke Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin was shot by Prince Othon of Schoenberg-Waldenburg and wounded in both knees and one hand. Luckily, the gun was loaded with only bird shot. Nevertheless, the Duke will be confined to a hospital for several days.

DR. SWALLOW'S HOT CHIRP.

BINGHAMTON (N. Y.), Sept. 27.—In an address in this city tonight, Rev. Dr. Swallow, Presbyterian minister, said that the prohibition ticket, said that nothing has ever done as much good for the country as the prohibition ticket, but it had called attention to the nefariousness of the liquor traffic as nothing else has ever done.

LAUNCHING OF CONNECTICUT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Secretary Morton and Rear-Admiral Capps, Chief Constructor of the navy, left Washington for New York tonight to attend the launching of the battleship Connecticut Thursday. From New York the Secretary will go West to attend the wedding of his niece, Miss Jennie Morton, at the Morton homestead, Arbor Lodge, Neb.

KING OF SAXONY VERY ILL.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Although reports from abroad that the King of Saxony is dangerously ill were officially denied yesterday, a court bulletin issued today says the difficulty the King experiences while breathing increases with spasmodic periods that yield reluctantly to remedies.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—At today's meeting of the annual convention of the American Association of Teachers, W. Thatcher of Pullman, Wash., read a paper on "Ash." Thatcher was elected a member of the Executive Committee of the association.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Ah! what is whiter than the cliffs' white snows
That melting drift to ocean's fountains
Ah! what is sweeter than the sweet wild rose
That blooms far up upon the mountain?
Wouldst thou know? 'Tis the orange blossom!

Love lies-a-slumbering in the maiden's breast
Fairer than wild rose, purer than white snow!
What flow'ry rose that young heart to unrest?
'Tis not the rose, or other flow'rs I know—
But the sweet old orange blossom!

What flower do you press within the Book
To wither there with life's too fleeting years?
Until at last you'll turn a page—and look
With smiling eyes, or eyes bedimmed with tears,
At those faded orange blossoms!

Gooseberries and a Cat.

Not long ago officials of the Department of Agriculture were much amused by a letter sent the department by an occasional correspondent in Virginia.

Among other things, the writer hastened to advise Secretary Wilson to this effect:

"My wife had a Tame cat that dyd. Being a Tortureball and a Grate breed, we had the same breed in the garden, and for the enrichment of the soil I had the Carkis deposited under the roots of a Gooseberry Bush. (The Frute being up to then the smooth variety.) But the next season Frute after the Cat was berred, the Gooseberry was all hairy and more remarkable, the Catpawls of the Same Bush was All of Said Hairy description."—Collins's Weekly.

THE CONTEST OF 1904.

CONITION OF THE FINANCES.

A Droll Attitude—Solid for Roosevelt—Why Parker Was Nominated—Opportunity Thrown Away. The Mythical "Labor Vote."

[COMPILED, ARRANGED AND EDITORIALY PRESENTED BY THE TIMES.]

National Finance.

In the desperate hunt for an issue in the present campaign, the Democratic National Committee sent emissaries to Washington to see if something could not be turned up in the management of national finances by the Republican party. These gentlemen found that, at the close of the fiscal year 1904 the average rate of interest paid by the government on its interest-bearing debt was 2.7 per cent., as against 4.05 per cent. paid July 1, 1898, near the close of the last Cleveland administration. In spite of the war with Spain there has been a substantial reduction of the total public debt in the last eight years.

The Cleveland administration of 1893-97 increased the bonded debt from $183,000,000 in 1893 to $447,000,000 in 1897, and also increased the rate of interest. After the Spanish war the interest-bearing debt of the country was $1,046,000,000, and the rate of interest was 2.87 per cent. Since that time the net reduction in principal under Republican administration has been about $151,000,000, while the rate of interest has fallen to 2.7 per cent.

The Panama Canal is to be built, and the government will issue bonds to obtain the money. These, however, will not be in any danger of being sold at a rate which will net the investor less than 2 per cent. annual interest. That this will be done no one can doubt who is familiar with the bond issues of the Spanish war.

Not a Traveled Nominee. Mr. Parker, Democratic nominee for President, has never journeyed west of Buffalo, N. Y. What does he know of the great West, its people, their achievements, their possibilities, their needs? How can he reconcile the demands of the different sections, and decide great questions properly and for the good of the whole country? Of limited experience, a narrow horizon, he is not comparable with Theodore Roosevelt, who has traveled the country over, lived East and West, knows the people, the country, and is a President of the people not controlled by Wall street and its influences.

He Stands for Deeds. No matter who is elected the government is bound to go on along the present lines and the practical question, therefore, is whether Mr. Roosevelt will continue to be an Executive in whom the people will take more pride and in whom they will have more confidence than they would in Judge Parker. They know Mr. Roosevelt. Conscientious and diligent, he is the President what a dusty law book is to the best selling novel of the month. Definite and honorable deeds are not words. As said Mr. Roosevelt, and in that trite expression is contained the difference between the hopes of the Republicans and the hopes of the Democrats. It is no fault of Judge Parker that this is so. It is the handling of a minority party must always face. If the voters of the United States failed to give the preference to the man of deeds.—[Detroit Free Press.]

Too Many Leaders. In heaven's name, let some of these general retire or be retired. At present we have several plans of campaign in operation in various parts of the country. Gen. Putnam of the New York World is conducting one campaign on the theory that eastern Democrats are the whole thing, and, moreover, that the Western people are not to be credited with the Parker telegram; Gen. Bryan of the Commoner is carrying on another, with the avowed purpose of having certain ideas put into the Democratic platform in 1908; Gen. Hogg of Texas is leading a light brigade of his own, demanding that Judge Parker is much nearer the trusts than is President Roosevelt; Gen. Hearst has one shot for Parker and a battery of shots against August Belmont, a National Committeeman; and there are editors all over the land who are taking the Parker telegram and are bringing down an enemy that is far back in the rear, saying nothing.—[Mobile Register.]

The Mythical "Labor Vote." The census of 1900 reported a population of 76,014,117 in the United States, above 10 years of age, engaged in gainful occupations, of which 5,319,913 were females. Over 2,000,000 of the latter were engaged in domestic and personal service, 1,213,504 were engaged in manufacturing, and nearly a million in agriculture. The total for both sexes was thus divided among the general classes of occupations:

Agricultural pursuits 1,831,785
Professional service 1,258,729
Domestic and personal service 2,000,000
Trade and transportation 1,478,964
Manufacturing, mechanical and pursuits 7,085,892

This exhibit is worth noting beside the statement which has been published that the American Federation of Labor has a contributing membership of 1,250,000, and embraces nearly three-fourths of the organized labor of the country. This number constitutes only a small percentage of the total working force of the country.—[Springfield Republican.]

Why Parker Was Nominated. Not, indeed, for his popularity was Judge Parker selected as the Democratic standard-bearer. He was chosen by the platform committee of the Democratic administration because of supposed availability. This availability was based on the view that the judge had no record in politics leaving him open to attack.

The intention was to make an aggressive campaign against the personality and record of President Roosevelt, under the leadership of a man whose personality and record were immune from assault.

But the campaign was very young when two things became manifest. First, that the personality and record of Theodore Roosevelt had both won such enduring and widespread respect in American eyes that an aggressive campaign on any such line was sure to react a hundred-fold against the assailant. Second, that if there was any chance to reap a political harvest by assaulting and wounding Roosevelt, the man to lead the attack was not Judge Parker.

Judge Parker has a record brief, indeed, but suggestive of unfruitfulness and unforcefulness. A strong man can never be beaten with a dough face in old United States.—[Louisville Herald.]

A Droll Attitude. It is droll, the attitude of the Democratic party in the present campaign. It has nominated candidates of moderate talents as figureheads for the ventures of the discredited party, and expects the people to support them, while the Democratic National Committee and Tammany are expected to buy or steal success.

The Democratic party, with its unsound views, financial and economic, lies hopelessly behind Parker and those unnamed expectancies voiced by Williams, Bryan and other Democrats. And Bryan promises to reorganize the party after the election. How? Evidently on lines of Socialism, government and municipal ownership of telegraph and railroad lines, with all the sequence. What a vagueness of thought and promise! How may so-called leaders of any party expect to get the votes of sensible men upon a proposition so dim as this? The fault with the Democratic party, this year, is that it does not even furnish a good dissolving view.

Not a Traveled Nominee. Mr. Parker, Democratic nominee for President, has never journeyed west of Buffalo, N. Y. What does he know of the great West, its people, their achievements, their possibilities, their needs? This number constitutes only a small percentage of the total working force of the country.—[Springfield Republican.]

Why Parker Was Nominated. Not, indeed, for his popularity was Judge Parker selected as the Democratic standard-bearer. He was chosen by the platform committee of the Democratic administration because of supposed availability. This availability was based on the view that the judge had no record in politics leaving him open to attack.

The intention was to make an aggressive campaign against the personality and record of President Roosevelt, under the leadership of a man whose personality and record were immune from assault.

But the campaign was very young when two things became manifest. First, that the personality and record of Theodore Roosevelt had both won such enduring and widespread respect in American eyes that an aggressive campaign on any such line was sure to react a hundred-fold against the assailant. Second, that if there was any chance to reap a political harvest by assaulting and wounding Roosevelt, the man to lead the attack was not Judge Parker.

Judge Parker has a record brief, indeed, but suggestive of unfruitfulness of capital employed in wholesome enterprise as in preventing its use in contravention of the public interest.—[Fairbanks' Letter of Acceptance.]

Solid for Roosevelt.

It is easy to credit the reports from the Chicago Republican branch headquarters that the poll of the voters throughout the West shows a heavy preponderance for Roosevelt. This is exactly what the country had a right to expect. The Republicans are helped in the West in two ways in this campaign. Roosevelt has a positive strength throughout the whole of this locality. Parker is about the weakest candidate in the Western States that the Democrats could have selected. When Parker was nominated the feelings of the western Democrats were not taken into consideration at all. It was assumed that Parker would be less weak in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut than the other aspirants, and he was nominated on that account. The East dictated his candidacy.

Chairman W. R. Hobbs of the Kansas State Committee says Roosevelt will beat that 23,000 plurality which McKinley got in that State in 1900. As the poll in Kansas has been virtually finished, his word on this point is entitled to weight. Gov. Bailey had a lead in 1900 of almost twice McKinley's margin of 1900, which shows that the Republican of an old-fashioned Republican majority in Kansas this year is bright. Roosevelt ought to beat McKinley in the West, especially as he has always been a particular favorite in the Sunbelt State. It was Kansas which started the boom for McKinley at the Philadelphia convention of 1900 which swept him, against his will, into the Vice Presidency.—[St. Louis Globe Democrat.]

Attitude of the North. The North does not advocate social equality for the negro; it does not advocate negro domination in the South, because it would not endure negro domination in the North. It does insist, however, that if the South maintains a white man's government the Southern white man's vote shall count for no more than the Northern white man's vote.

That is the beginning and the end of the Northern attitude. If the South chooses deliberately to misunderstand it, that is its own fault, but mere perversity.—[Chicago Chronicle.]

A Mistaken Idea.

The idea seems to be that a few gold standard editors in New York City constitute the Democratic party, while the party itself, organized by Bryan and Jones at the head in 1896 and 1900, with Parker and Hill at the head in 1904 is not the party. It is some irresponsible and incapacitated establishment which they are called upon to order about according to their several and disjointed fancies. The country knows the Democratic party and has known it for forty years. It has attracted to itself throughout these years the elements in our national life to which its doctrine, its course, and its men have appealed. The party of Bryan and Hill is not what those who are called Democrats fondly imagine it to be. It is theirs to accept or reject.—[Portland Oregonian.]

No Exceptions.

We have known no party in dealing with offenders, and have hunted down without mercy every wrongdoer in the service of the nation whom it was possible by the utmost vigilance to detect; for the public servant who betrays his trust and the private individual who debauches him stand as the worst of criminals, because their crimes are crimes against the entire community, and not only against this generation, but against the generations that are yet to be.—[Roosevelt's Letter of Acceptance.]

A Candid Opinion.

A man who is weak enough to put his candidacy against their (Hill's and Roosevelt's) hands before the convention would not be strong enough to resist their influence. If he were, he would be any possibility successful.—[William J. Bryan.]

Plenty of Gold.

The predictions of 1896 that if the United States stuck to the single gold standard it could not get enough of that metal to do business with because of the world's struggle for it sound ridiculous now, when it holds $1,841,000,000, or more than $16 per capita.

These Indiana Democrats.

Ex-Senator Towne has returned from Indiana to the bosom of Tammany, and says plainly that there is no Democratic rainbow in that State; that Democrats there have no enthusiasm for Parker; that "many of them will vote for Roosevelt, and the Watson ticket will poll a big Democratic vote."

Advice to Watson.

Candidate Tom Watson has promised to make one conservative speech in Kansas. If Tom wants an audience in Kansas he should bill himself for something else. And if he could engage a good snake-eater as a certain raiser it would be all the better.—[Kansas City Journal.]

A Charitable Suggestion.

It has been discovered that subjecting the eye to a blue light of intense candle power induces insensibility to pain on the part of the patient. Mr. Taggart ought to try this on Mr. Villa when he makes his next "touch."—[Chicago Chronicle.]

ART CATALOGUE.

Unique and Handsome Brochure issued by the Los Angeles School of Art and Design.

No handsome catalogue or prospectus of any educational institution has ever been issued than that of the Los Angeles School of Art and Design, which has just come from the press. It is a brochure that should be appreciated by all art lovers, inasmuch as it is profusely illustrated with drawings made by students of the school. If the work of the school is to be judged by the character of the illustrations, there can be but one conclusion arrived at, and that is, the instruction given in the Los Angeles School of Art and Design is comprehensive and thorough. The cover design and a number of the interior illustrations are by H. G. Villa, a young man who got his start in the art school several years ago by winning a scholarship in one of The Times contests. He is now a member of the faculty and an artist of much promise. Mr. Villa displays a great deal of originality in his conceptions, as well as much cleverness in execution. The School of Art and Design is very prosperous in its artistic new home overlooking picturesque Westlake Park. The principal, Mrs. L. E. Garden-MacLeod, and secretary, Malcolm MacLeod, may well feel proud of the success of their enterprise.

BARKER BROS. MAMMOTH DOUBLE STORES

There is no such stock of Oriental Rugs hereabouts as is shown by us. This is true in every sense—the assortment is bigger and broader—the selection embraces a wider range of sizes, colors and patterns—every rug in the assortment is exactly what it purports to be, and is so guaranteed by us.

These facts make our

the greatest Oriental Rug opportunity in the Southwest. The entire stock is at your disposal—not a single rug is withdrawn. It is not a "special" stock, but is our full line of carefully selected genuine specimens. Each one bears the original price tag and that price is now cut exactly in half.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Missing Boy.

Rare story for Los Angeles! A mysterious disappearance! George Tracy, a boy who has been working at Hildner's ranch, is reported as missing yesterday by M. J. Spier, his guardian, Minister's Farm.

Rev. G. A. Hough will preach in the First Methodist church this evening and say farewell to his many friends. In Vincent Church a reception will be given Thursday evening, and Mr. and Mrs. Hough will depart for San Francisco on Friday morning.

County's Rich Well Strike.

The county will be saved $150 a month by a wonderful well of water that was tapped at the County Hospital yesterday. All day water was pumped out through a three-inch pipe without touching bottom. The well was drilled 148 feet and through 88 feet of rock. The water has a strong taste of sulphur. When the pump is not going the water rises nearly to the top.

Drummer Arrested.

M. Mendel, a San Francisco traveling salesman, was arrested last night by the Los Angeles police on a charge of felonious embezzlement, but the amount of his defalcation, in fact, will be held pending the arrival of an officer from the north.

Too Large a Job.

James Higgins was so anxious to see the milk at Hazard's Pavilion last night that he could not wait for the doors to be opened, so he tried to push everybody else out of line. As there were several thousand waiting men, Higgins found he had undertaken a large job. He was protesting fairly well when a policeman arrested him on a charge of disturbance. Higgins was released on bail.

Another Hotel.

The plans that have been for some time in course of preparation for a seven-story brick hotel building, for Mrs. Emma H. Peery, are said to be about completed and work upon the building is expected to begin at an early date. The structure, as planned, will be 62x180 feet. It will be at No. 425-427 South Olive street, have pressed-brick front and modern features, and cost about $75,000.

May Have Fiesta.

An informal dinner of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association will take place tonight at 6 o'clock at Levy's when the important question of whether or not to have a fiesta in 1935 will be discussed. The subject will be taken up here for the first time by the association as a body, and no subscriptions will be solicited. Open discussion will be the order of the evening, following the report.

Sneak Thieves.

A sneak thief entered the house of V. M. Chesbro, No. 2309 Leoti street, through a rear window, last night, and was preparing to ransack the place, when two sons of the household discovered the thief and frightened him away. F. C. Cook, No. 2225 Central avenue, reported to the police that his house was entered during the afternoon by a thief, who unlocked the front door. Two guns and $10 were taken.

Horse-beater Locked up.

Juan Sattelo, a driver for the People's Tanning Association, was arrested last night by Deputy Sheriff Chavez and Dr. J. A. Edmonds of the S.P.C.A. on a charge of cruelty to animals. Sattelo was beating two small horses hitched to a heavily-loaded brick wagon on Aliso street. The officers ordered him to desist, but instead of doing so, Sattelo started to attack the officers with the heavy butt end of a whip. He was locked up in default of $25 bail.

Died in the North.

Levin Shively, for many years a resident of Los Angeles, died a few days ago at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward J. Fowler, in San Francisco, aged 70. He is survived besides his daughter by a son, Dr. Henry L. Shively, who is practicing his profession in New York. The deceased was well known to most of the older residents of Los Angeles. He was always active in any movement which had for its object the advancement of the city's interests.

Sick Man's Race With Death.

Stronger than any consideration for his own health is fatal duty, as viewed by Walter S. Melick, secretary of the State Board of Examiners. Although a desperately sick man for some weeks, Mr. Melick yesterday fully warranted his reputation as a fighter. He is now in Dr. Burke's sanatorium at Santa Rosa to hasten to the bedside of his aged mother, whose death has been momentarily expected in this city for some days past. Melick learned of his mother's serious condition Monday and yesterday started homeward in the hope of once more seeing her alive. Friends tried to dissuade him from making the journey, but he persisted.

BREVITIES.

Seeing is believing! Come and see our $1.50 glasses; Al-crystal reading lenses in 10-year gold-rimmed frames at $1.50, worth $2 to $3. Fully warranted. Highest grade prescription glasses at half the usual price. Eyes tested free by regular residents of the city. 251 S. Spring, near Fourth street, opposite the new Hellman building.

The millinery opening of the J. W. Robinson Company will take place next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They will show the finest line of imported patterns ever shown in this city, also a large line of the finest millinery from their own workrooms. Every lady in this vicinity should visit their millinery department sometime during this opening.

The Times Home phone number has been changed from Exchange 2 to "The Times." Simply ask the operator for "The Times," no prefix or number being necessary.

Dr. G. W. Williamson of the Electro Medical Clinic has moved his office to corner of Second and Broadway, rooms 211 and 212, over Sun Drug Store.

Cummock School—Fall term enrollment Thursday and Friday, Sept. 29. Children's department, 1 to 4 p.m. Special display of imported hats all this week at the Gertrude Millinery Shop, suite 120 Potomac block, over the Ville de Paris.

Messengers wanted, with bicycles, at Western Union Telegraph Office, First and Spring streets. Address Z, box 100, Times office.

Auction: Collector's shop. Final sale at 10 this morning. Antiques, rare art things. 325 West Fourth, near Hill.

Fiftieth year of the English Classical School for Girls, 120-124 South Euclid, Pasadena, begins September 29. Marlborough School for Girls, reopens October 2. Mrs. Caswell, the principal, at home hereafter from 1 to 4 p.m.

The San Francisco office of The Times is located in room 10, Chronicle Building, Telephone Red 1234.

Another fine dinner today at Hotel Rialto Café for $5.00, 2 to 4 p.m. Short orders all day.

Edgar Palmer, dentist, removed to residence, 922 Bonnie Bae, phone 3007.

John Wigmore & Sons Co. call attention to their new location, 115 North Los Angeles street, and their new machine shop and plant-mill supplies, stonecutters' tools and polishers supplies. Both telephones.

Dr. Zachau, chiropractor, 215 West Fourth St., returned from his vacation. Elementary branches at Y.W.C.A. 7 p.m. today.

Stocks of art squatters, Pennell's.

There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union for R. Smith, J. P. Marshall, Frank H. Kimball, Rev. J. F. Fowler, Lee Ellis, J. P. Marshall, J. H. Dundon, Geo. W. Carpenter, F. R. Knowlton, Miss Catherine McQuay, The Pac. Oil & Land Works, Martha Baird, Hon. Herman Silver, McKay Co.

KNOWS WILD LIFE.

Alden Sampson, Mighty Huntsman, Will Talk Here by Invitation of Sierra Club.

A "talk" of an unusual sort, one bound to attract and interest a wide circle of intelligent people, is scheduled for next Friday evening at the Women's Club House, when Alden Sampson, A.M., secretary of the Boone and Crockett Club and game-preserver expert of the United States Biological Survey, will devote an hour or two to an illustrated discourse on "Life of the Forest." The public is freely invited to attend.

Mr. Sampson comes to Los Angeles by invitation of the Southern California section of the Sierra Club, and his lecture is also vouchered for by the Friday Morning Club.

In company with Willoughby Rodman, Russ Avery and other members of the Sierra Club, Mr. Sampson spent a part of last summer in the splendid mountain fastnesses back of the Yosemite Valley. To the delightful friendship then formed, Los Angeles is indebted for the prospective honor of next Friday evening's event. A fellow-member with Mr. Sampson in the Boone and Crockett Club is no less than the mighty huntsman and stalwart statesman, Theodore Roosevelt. The two are warm personal friends.

As a lover of game life, big and little, rather than as a government expert, Mr. Sampson is credited with an annual expenditure of thousands of dollars from his private purse in pursuing his chosen task of extending game-preserver limits throughout the United States and otherwise increasing game protection. He took next Friday evening will deal with intimate life in the forest and be illustrated with stereoscopic slides of wild scenes photographed by him in the course of many wanderings.

PASADENA WOMAN MARRIES.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—Col. Charles Morton of the Seventh United States Cavalry, stationed at Chickamauga Park, and Mrs. Sabina F. Pennington of Pasadena, Cal., were yesterday married at the home of Capt. F. R. Rice in this city. Rev. John W. Day, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, officiated.

Your Piano

Thoughtful consideration can lead to but one conclusion—that your piano can be purchased most satisfactorily of Geo. J. Birkel Company.

This assertion carries with it no reflection upon the excellence of any other make, or the honesty of purpose of anybody who deals in pianos. It simply recognizes conditions as they exist.

You want to feel satisfied that you are getting true value for every dollar you invest.

Ours is the largest piano house in Southern California. This in itself is an indication of unsurpassed facilities and a very large business, which means the ability to deal more liberally with you.

Besides the Steinway—the world's greatest piano—we handle the Kramlich and Bach, Starr, Estey, Emerson, Richmond, Haddorf, Brinkerhoff and the Cecilian—the "Perfect Piano Player."

(WRITTEN BY A MAN.)

Because I am a Man I was chosen to write this tale. I am not responsible for being a Man, and I am firmly convinced that before many hours have passed it will be clear for me that that responsibility has never been. Then, as the details of the story unfolded, I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

Then I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

Then I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

Then I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

Then I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

Then I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

Then I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction. I felt that I was not alone in my conviction.

SCHOOL AND

CORPORATION

PROSPERING IN ITS NEW HOME.

DOBINSON SCHOOL'S SUCCESSFUL AUTUMNAL OPENING.

Largely Increased Attendance in All Departments—Twelve Experienced Teachers Employed—Mental and Physical Development of the Young Carefully Looked After.

The Dobinson School of Expression and Dramatic Art, now in the sixth year of its organized work, opened its fall and winter term on the 15th inst. with largely increased numbers in every department. The beautiful and artistic home of the school, second to none in the United States for elegance and comfort, is an illustration of the standards established and proven by its principal.

The exterior of the building is dignified, substantial and imposing. The interior speaks of culture, repose and high mental and artistic aim. As you enter the rich old hall of oak and brass, and so on through library, Shakespeare gallery, music room and classrooms, the effect is to beautify, strengthen and uplift.

The catalogue just issued for the coming year, is distinguished by the same high simplicity that governs all in this home of art and education.

The classes in all departments are three times the size of last year, and several important departments have been added. Twelve experienced teachers are now required for the school work, and in the department of expression the studies include reading, spelling, word analysis, interpretation, dramatic art, rhetoric, composition, English literature, biography, history, Shakespeare, recitation, physical culture, training of the speaking voice, fencing, pantomime, life study, history of art, and original work in story telling and monologues. The addition of the department of common school studies, during the past year was most important.

It is not only possible and profitable for students to grow up in the school as they were, as the preparatory and expression course provide all that the average young woman can master, and with the addition of music, and the languages, she is well equipped for life, as well as for one of the most intellectual and fascinating professions, that of dramatic interpreter and instructor.

Back to the future has been added this year, with Mr. Lowman to direct. Miss E. K. ridge has charge of all indoor physical exercise and this entirely the desire of the principals of the school, that a director of physical training should show the result of the work. The girls are also under the direct supervision of Mrs. Dobinson, who is perhaps better fitted than any teacher in all Los Angeles to encourage the delicate or backward girl to faithfully pursue physical exercise, and to breathe well, stand well, live well. Mrs. Dobinson was pronounced a hopeless invalid, and came to health and usefulness by the practice of what she preaches. She also gives personal attention to very young children, with the assistance of Miss O'Connor, who has been markedly successful with children.

Mr. Dobinson will on account of the growth of the school be obliged to share some of his class work, this year with assistants, but will continue to conduct one period daily in all advanced classes of poetic delivery, Bible reading, English and Shakespeare interpretation. He will also deliver one lecture each week upon the law of gesture and pantomime. He has entire direction of the dramatic department, and personally trains and directs all Shakespearean and standard plays, but will be assisted by a professional in staging minor productions. It is the intention to stage but three or four standard plays during the season, but to excel in interpretation and delivery, as usual. The most notable of forthcoming dramatic productions will be the "Merchant of Venice," with Mr. Dobinson as Shylock.

One of the strongest points in favor of this solid institution of learning, is that the department of expression and the department of stage training are distinctly apart and in no way interfere with each other. The expression course includes study of the drama, dramatic interpretation, the presentation of scenes from Shakespeare and other standard plays for the purpose of broadening the pupil's literary grasp, and to add variety of ease to all interpretation. But the classes preparing for a professional life upon the stage are conducted in the evenings in a professional manner on the practical stage in the auditorium of the school.

Readings, scenes from Shakespearean plays and modern comedietta will be furnished free of charge by members of the senior class in the department of the entertainment and dramatic assistance of churches, women's clubs and schools, provided that such engagements shall not interfere with the school work.

Special classes will be formed for afternoon or evening study of the French language, conducted in the tutorial or conversational method, by M. Eugene Foucher, graduate of the government military school of Fontainebleau, also of the College Ledru Rollin, Paris, France. M. Foucher will also direct a class in the study of French literature, and will give instruction in translation and the art of French composition.

SAN DIEGO.

HAS TWO VOTERS NOW.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES. SAN DIEGO, Sept. 27.—The reports from the registration at the office of the County Clerk show that North Island Precinct, Coronado, has made a net gain of one voter since the last election. For years the precinct has boasted one voter, this being the keeper of the marine ways. Efforts to consolidate the precinct with other precincts have failed, the courts having held that so long as there was one man to vote the formality prevailing in other precincts with a larger population must be followed. Henry F. Field, a farmer is the new voter. Hence the opening of the polls, the tallying, closing the polls, the opening of the vote and the collection of the election bill from the county will be shared by two men instead of one man.

NEW OPERAHOUSE COMPANY.

The San Diego Opera House Company, which has been incorporated with a capital stock of $150,000, of which one-half has been subscribed, has as directors: H. C. Wyatt, Los Angeles; L. J. Wade, U. S. Grant, Jr., D. C. Reed and J. M. Dodge, San Diego. Of the capital stock Wyatt has $200 and $74,000 as trustee, the same amount being held by D. C. Reed. The owner of the theater will sell for $125,000. The amount cannot be realized the company will build on the block opposite the theater, owned by U. S. Grant, Jr.

DEMAND LIPTON CUP.

The San Diego Yacht Club has made a formal demand on the directors of the Corinthian Yacht Club for the possession of the Lipton cup, won by the Corinthian in the recent races, Commodore Howard having authorized the Commodore, secretary of the club, to receive it. It is doubtful if this cup is delivered to the club until a reply is

SAN DIEGO SHORT ITEMS.

The revenue cutter Manning, which has been in port the past week, leaves today for Santa Barbara. Twenty-five Chinamen caught crossing the border from Mexico, were corralled by Deputy United States Marshal Place here this morning and photographed, preparatory to being deported. In spite of considerable opposition, the City Council has sold the F and W building, from street railway front to the Bartlett Estate Company for $25. There is nothing in the franchise to prevent the company from using mules or gasoline power in running the cars, which was the ground of contention.

CORONADO BEACH.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES. CORONADO, Sept. 27.—General Manager A. G. Wells of the Santa Fé chartered the launch May yesterday for a deep-sea fishing cruise. Dr. Lovini, the physician at the hotel, was one of the guests. Three hundred and fifty pounds of yellowtail were the result of the fishing. Graham E. Babcock entertained a party of friends last night at "Wind-swept." In a few days Mr. Babcock and family will leave for St. Louis, where they will be the guests of George Meyer, Mrs. Babcock's father, who is just returning from Europe, accompanied by his daughters.

Content to Stay in Prison.

John Taborn, the oldest man in the penitentiary in point of service, commenced his thirty-fourth year behind the grim walls on August 16. He was received on August 16, 1870, from Delaware county, to serve a life sentence. He is one of the few men behind the walls who fully realize that the world has passed him and that he would not know how to make a living even if granted his freedom. Taborn has been asked a number of times if he does not desire his freedom, and always declines. In fact, he becomes somewhat excited if the matter is discussed at length. He has been behind the prison walls so long that he has vagaries of the mind, to speak mildly. One of his hallucinations is that he makes trips outside the walls, and he sometimes tells remarkable stories of the incidents that happen on these trips.

For a number of years he has been an inmate of the prison asylum for insane, where he is permitted to do about as he pleases, ordinarily, he is sound of mind, but occasionally he has visions of trips taken about the country, and on a few occasions he has visited other countries, in his mind.

The prison officials believe that his long service in the prison has made him immune from work, and he puts in the most of his time in making trinkets which are sold to any person who desires to purchase.—Columbus Dispatch.

Suits That Distinguish the Wearer.

The $25 suits that we have singled out for today's mention excel anything shown elsewhere in town at anywhere near that price. A charming individuality of style about each one, and in quality of cloth and thoroughness of tailoring they entirely outclass the general run of $25 suits. A descriptive word of four of the various styles:

At $25 Splendidly tailored suits of excellent black or brown cheviot; long Norfolk jacket, in belted effect, satin lined; new full sleeves; collar and cuffs of velvet; coat beautifully braid trimmed. Walking skirts in the newest pleated effects.

At $25 Walking suits of smart gray, brown and blue mixed worsteds. New Tourist coat, taffeta silk lined, with broadcloth vest in onion skin or burnt orange. Skirt in the new pleated style.

At $25 Very similar to above, except the vests are of dotted silk, such as the swellest vests for men are made from.

At $25 Eton suits of brown and black cheviot with trimmings and ornaments of black silk braid. Jacket has the large fancy sleeves, which are growing more popular every day, and is lined with excellent taffeta. Pleated skirt, braid trimmed.

New Coats The immensely popular 3-4 length, Tourist coats of tan covert cloths with belted backs; some plain, some strap trimmed. Exceptional values at $13.50, $15 and $18.

Luxurious Evening coats of rich broadcloths, in white, burnt orange and onion shades; three-quarter length; velvet or braid trimmings. Some with capes. $42.50, $55, $87.50.

Made in chamois finish—especially desirable for opera wraps, reception and evening gowns. Wide variety of shades—Venus pink, Sulphur tan, Fresque, Black, light blue, green, ivory, cream, white, calbra blue, champagne and new leather shades. 32-inch widths, sponged and shrunk, in "A" quality, $4.50 a yard; "B" quality, $3 a yard. But of more general interest, perhaps, are the new Scotch and English suitings—the "mannish" cloths for tailor suits and walking skirts—at $1.00 to $6.00 a yard. In these the blue gray and brown mixtures have the preference.

MANY TOURISTS TO COME WEST.

WALTER RAYMOND EXPECTS A GOOD WINTER SEASON.

Famous Pasadena Hotel Man Takes Hopeful View of Future—Druggist Still Denies Charge of Arson—Dr. Palmer Appointed to High Office in Elk Order.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, Sept. 28.—Walter Raymond, proprietor of Hotel Raymond, returned yesterday from four months' sojourn in San Francisco. He is full of enthusiasm over this season's tourist trade and expects that the line of business with Raymond, who built the first large Southern California hotel, nearly twenty years ago and before that time, had been an expert excursion manager.

"This year's business," said Raymond, "will be a third better than that of last year. Last year was neither a year nor a big year. The problem which confronts me is to make the season longer. We can't extend it at the end because people are bound to hunt northern and eastern cities in April and May. We have got to make the season begin earlier. We know we will have a good season in February and March, but the six or eight weeks that come before that are slack."

"I may be giving away some of my business secrets, but I am going to tell what I have been doing to get people here earlier in the season. I have a place, San Francisco, Seattle and Portland are large cities and the people there don't realize what we have in Southern California. The climate of these towns is much like the East and the people go to Europe a great deal in the winter. Southern California is not known sufficiently to their attention. They know about Del Monte, Lake Tahoe, the Hawaiian Islands and a little about Santa Barbara, but our section has not been sufficiently advertised."

"So, during my stay in Frisco I instituted a four month campaign for Southern California. Pasadena, Raymond, I had 20,000 booklets printed and I got a list of the membership of the Southern California Tourist Association in the North and men and women's names will receive a booklet. I made a particularly strong pull for the Tourist Association. Our winter trade will be more of a drawing card than ever now that the city has taken possession of it. It gives the Association stability."

As to this season's success, the cold in the last year, the early cold this year will favor us. The Presidential election should not lessen the influx of tourists. It will be over before the winter season begins. Roosevelt will be re-elected and business will continue as before."

Raymond said that he still holds the option on the Crown Hill property upon which he thought of erecting a hotel last year. He is not yet decided whether to build this hotel, but will decide before very long, as the option runs until the end of the year. He intended whatever of building at Hollywood. The rumor that he intended to build there was started by a chance drive which took him out that way several months ago.

SHECKLER HELD. James D. Sheckler, the young man accused of attempting to murder a woman in North Pasadena, was released from jail at 4 o'clock yesterday morning upon $2500 bonds, furnished by M. P. Green and Nathan White, Yesler, morning shoe dealer, and Mr. J. M. Moody, Esq., to defend him, and at 10 o'clock appeared before Judge Sheckler on the charge of attempted murder. The hearing was not held.

Yesterdays Pacific Electric Railway, together with Mrs. Miles and her daughter, are visiting the former's brother, J. S. Miles, and family, of 344 North Main street. Various beach and mountain trips, they will return East by the way of Portland and Seattle.

Victor Marsh registered yesterday at Hotel Maryland. He is just returned from Japan, where he buys art goods. Marsh says the little brown men do not seem so worried about the outcome of the war.

The Audubon Society will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of M. S. Elkins, 1744 North Main street. It will be an indoor meeting, and Gideon P. Stewart will deliver the principal address.

A rumor is current to the effect that Ethel Barrymore, the noted actress, is about to leave the stage on account of her illness. She is said to be at home in Pasadena.

Jose Ybarra was fined $10 yesterday for driving a motor car without a license. Dr. H. K. Macomber yesterday sold his home, fronting 144 feet on the Pacific Electric Railway, to the Pacific Electric Railway, for $10,000. The purchaser will improve the property and hold it as an investment.

The selling price was not announced. Yesterdays Pacific Electric Railway, together with Mrs. Miles and her daughter, are visiting the former's brother, J. S. Miles, and family, of 344 North Main street. Various beach and mountain trips, they will return East by the way of Portland and Seattle.

Francis Bernard, aged 25 years, died at his home on East Colorado street. The death of Elmer R. Boody, aged 25, a native of Illinois, occurred yesterday morning at No. 34 North Main street. The body will be taken to Morris, Ill., for interment.

Samuel W. Hill, who has been visiting his mother in Philadelphia this summer, is expected to arrive in Pasadena today.

Miss Annie Holmes has returned from her outing on Mt. Wilson. Her husband, which has been widely separated during the summer, is again at home on the Pacific Electric Railway. The doctor will reach Pasadena the latter part of this week. Mrs. Hill has spent the summer in East Grove, Miss Hibbard in Honolulu, while Dr. Hibbard has been traveling in Europe.

Furnished room, 40 Worcester ave. Porter & Sutton, Law Offices have moved to Rooms 807-809 Brady Bldg., San Angeles.

School books and supplies. Leonard's. Fifteenth year of the English Classical School for Girls, 130-134 South Euclid, begins September 28. Artists' materials at Wadsworth's. Stacks of art squares, Pennels.

COVINA. NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH. COVINA, Sept. 27.—Joseph Powell, engineer at the Vineland pumping station, escaped death as if by miracle last night. He is suffering from a number of serious burns but will recover. He was suffocated last night when a fire broke out in the reservoir in which the engine is operated, to see if the supply was sufficient to last through another night. The gas in the reservoir became ignited and a terrific explosion followed, wrecking the tank and throwing Powell into the air. His face was terribly burned and he will be permanently scarred. The explosion was heard a distance of several miles.

Political Pot Boiling. The American Club is planning a trip to San Diego for the near future, details of which may be arranged at the next regular meeting. The boys are championing their bits and paving ground restlessly because the first trip of the campaign is not yet announced. The officers have announced to the conclusion that a little more of the will be done before the season of holding the first public rally.

DEATH LAID TO "SCIENTISTS."

ERYSIPELAS TAKES LIFE OF A WHITTIER LAD.

CIVIL SERVICE. The United States Civil Service Commission announces that a clerk-examiner examination will be held at Pasadena, November 16. The age limit is 18 to 45 years. It therefore urges that all persons who are qualified apply for and take this examination. Applicants should apply either to Will S. Laurie, the local representative at Pasadena, or to the secretary, Board of Civil Service Examiners, postoffice, San Francisco, for application form No. 1271, which should be properly executed and filed with the secretary at San Francisco not later than 4 p.m., October 15.

MANY SCHOLARS. The public schools were reopened Monday with an enrollment of 2257, which far surpasses the most enthusiastic expectations of the school authorities. And the day started in rainy, foggy and clear weather. Superintendent Gray estimated a last week that about 2500 youngsters would knock for admittance to the halls of learning on the first day. He was a little off in his estimate, but the whole schoolhouse under the result, and now the Board of Education is again confronted with the problem of a surplus of children in the schools. For they had figured on barely housing the 2500.

MISS STICKNEY'S GIFT. On Monday night Miss Susan H. Stickney presented to various local institutions her valuable collection of art treasures, which have adorned Stickney's home for many years. A number of people were present at the presentation, which was made by City Attorney C. J. Wiley in behalf of the donors. A reception followed. Throop Institute, the public library and the public schools were the recipients.

ABOUT TOWN. At the regular meeting of the City Council yesterday the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the widening of Fair Oaks avenue, between Colorado and Union streets.

Francis Eugene Waag, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Waag, died yesterday at his home in North Pasadena.

Throop Polytechnic Institute opened today with a largely increased attendance. J. J. Patton yesterday petitioned the City Council for permission to erect a wigwam on North Fair Oaks avenue, near Mary Street, for the use of political spellbinders.

Capl. A. W. Miller of Tippecanoe City, O., together with Mrs. Miles and her daughter, are visiting the former's brother, J. S. Miles, and family, of 344 North Main street. Various beach and mountain trips, they will return East by the way of Portland and Seattle.

Church Meeting Discusses Supervisor Fight.

Burdette Says His Pulpit Will be a Stump.

The "preacher in politics," that factor which has proven such a bugbear to many a partisan politician, was certainly in evidence last night at the First Methodist Church, at the meeting of the citizens associated in the Better Government League.

Leonard Merrill and George Alexander, candidates for Supervisorial honors received—it should have made them rosy with modest blushes. And such a "knockfest" against superior to that which was in progress at Hazard's Pavilion, only a block away.

The speakers were the venerable Dr. E. S. Chapman, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League; Dr. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church; Dr. A. W. Adkinson, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. Robert J. Burdette, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church; Leonard Merrill and George Alexander, candidates for Supervisorial honors received—it should have made them rosy with modest blushes. Adkinson, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. Robert J. Burdette, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church; Leonard Merrill and George Alexander, candidates for Supervisorial honors received—it should have made them rosy with modest blushes. And such a "knockfest" against superior to that which was in progress at Hazard's Pavilion, only a block away.

The speakers were the venerable Dr. E. S. Chapman, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League; Dr. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church; Dr. A. W. Adkinson, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. Robert J.
